Upon further investigation the police learned of the remark made to Kelly by the Japanese, and it was given out that the man had killed himself after losing $1,700 at Belmont track. A search of his clothing, however, brought forth a racing card on which were recorded the bots he had made at the track on Monday.

A receipt showing that a hotel bill had been paid at Mills Hotel on March 22 was also found; also a card on which was written "Minnie Rogers, No. 620 Jackson street, room 5, top floor."

On another card was written in script: "TAKASA GORO, No. 7 Woryamachi.

Dead Man's Philosophy.

The man's philosophies of life were then found. Some of them read: "There are some hearts that must be broken."

"Wisdom must overrule feeling. If a man overrules his instinct, he fall into misery. If he resists them, into vice."
"A woman never cares for a man until he ceases to care for her."

Efforts made to identify the man and woman failed, and the bodies of both were taken to the Morgue.

RIOTING GOES ON

President Roosevelt's party arrived by train over the Chicago and North-western Railroad, reaching the depot at Kinsie and Wells streets a few mi utes after noon and was met by Graeme Stewart and other members of the Reception Committee. The President and party immediately started for the Au-ditorium Annex.

The streets through which the Presi dent's carriage drove were lined with police and men in uniform and plain clothes mingled with the crowd everywhere. There were 450 policemen along

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER SAYS HE WILL CONTINUE TO GIVE BUT WILL ADOPT A SYSTEM

"I shall continue to give, in my own way, to any cause that appeals to me as being worthy or in need."

"Do you think that the sentiments expressed by Dr. Gladden are held by any large number of clergymen?"

"I should be loth to feel that such was the case. I have a great many good friends in the Christian ministry, and my experience with clergymen generally leads me to entertain only the warmest respect for them as just and charitable men. This controversy over my gift of $100,000 for Congregational missionary purposes has set me thinking as to the best methods of aiding church and philanthropic work. I am considering methods that will enable me in the future to regulate my giving of money on a systematic basis, and with more effective scope than heretofore."

Substance of a conversation between John D. Rockefeller and a friend, at Lakewood, N. J., concerning the "Tainted Money" attacks upon him. The friend in question, whose name is withheld by request, repeated the statement to an Evening World reporter.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 10 .- Corlett are investigating the death of Arthur Haserot, the Yale senior, of Cleve-land, who was found dead in his room land, who was found dead in his room with a builtet wound in his head. The Coroner said he was inclined to believe it a case of suicide, but that he has not made a formal inding and would not until he had he'd an inquest. It is thought possible that Haserot shot himself by accident while cleaning his revolver.

It has been learned that Haserot was found of hunting and accustomed to the use of firearms, and some of his friends who are confirm that he was not suffering from any mental decreasion, think that he was cleaning his revolver when he accidentally shot himself, the hullet entering his temple.
